THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the largest reputation of any Fertilizer sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L & R, with the above cut, which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words ——Reporters happy as lords.

——October opens up fallish enough.

——Republican caucuses all over the streets. Stir in the camp, sure's you're born.

——A heavy frost covered the ground at Sanford, yesterday morning. A considerable frost fell here also.

——There are two hundred and one bales of cotton on and around the new platform in the Baptist Grove.

——The State Treasurer was engaged, yesterday, in paying out quarter salaries to judges, heads of departments, etc.

——Yesterday was a poor day for libel suits. So was Saturday. No new ones have been entered against us since last Friday.

——"What about the Holden matter?" will be superceded a week from to-day by "What's the news from Indiana and Ohio?"

——Ten car loads of iron for the Raleigh & Augusta Railroad, passed through this city Sunday afternoon, and fifteen yesterday morning.

——People coming to the city report that intense excitement prevails in Orange county in consequence of the Holden-Stephens revelations.

——Our friend Hill, of the Western Union Telegraph office, received a severe shock, yesterday morning. It was not electric, but a ten pound boy. [Copyrighted.]

——A host of people is going to the Centennial this morning from this city. Sixty-one tickets were sold yesterday over the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and quite a number in addition will be sold this morning.

——During the singing of a hymn at Edenton Street M. E. Church last Sunday night, a young man fainted and fell back in his seat. It caused a little excitement, which subsided, however, as the young man very soon recovered himself. It was, perhaps, vertigo.

——The congregations at a majority of the churches, Sunday and Sunday night, were only fair, if that. The air was damp and searching, and light rain fell about noon and again near night. The ladies who ventured out wore wrappings, and the men appeared in overcoats.

——Wilmington street saw a right cheerful little row Sunday afternoon. Five white men and a darkey had stock in it. There was much cursing and bravado, but mighty little bloodshed. The Mayor said it was worth $7.25 each; every fellow put his ante up and the city scooped in the pot: $42.50.

Personal.

Hon. Mat. W. Ransom spent yesterday in this city. He speaks today in Caswell county, and to fill this appointment left yesterday afternoon on the 5 o'clock train.

Gen. Jas. M. Leach was also in the city yesterday. He is on his way to fill his appointment to-morrow at Murfreesboro, Chowan county.

John N. Staples, Esq., of Greensboro, spent yesterday in this city. Mr. S. has just been nominated for the Legislature in his county; he will be elected and will make an excellent representative.

Dr. John Berry, of Orange, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, with his bride. They were joined in marriage yesterday morning, near Hillsboro, and are en route to the Centennial.

Moving the Cotton.

The cotton with which the streets have been so blocked since the new crop began to arrive, is being moved from the streets and taken to the cotton lot. Wilmington street was cleared yesterday evening, and they will finish this morning the fleecy obstructions in Martin. Good move.

THE HOLDEN-KIRK WAR.

The Secret History of the Movement.

WHAT GOV. HOLDEN CONFESSED TO REV. C. T. BAILEY.

Himself an Unwilling Tool of the National Republican Committee.

THE STEPHENS MURDER—"THE REPUBLICANS HAD MUCH TO DO WITH THAT CRIME."

The Prosecution of the Investigation Stopped Because it was Likely to Criminate Prominent Republicans.

Saturday afternoon, as has already been announced, a gentleman of the NEWS staff was dispatched to Moore county to learn from Rev. C. T. Bailey whether or not there was any error in the statements made in the article headed "Startling Revelations," which appeared in the issue of that morning. This gentleman found Mr. Bailey at Bethlehem Church, six miles beyond Carthage, attending the meeting of the Sandy Creek Baptist Association. The first opportunity was taken advantage of to approach Mr. Bailey in regard to the matter, and that gentleman, after expressing regret that the matter should have got into print, said that the main facts set forth in the article were substantially true, but there were some errors, which he then pointed out. What the errors were the appended card of that gentleman will indicate. Mr. Bailey declined to be interviewed in the matter then, saying that he would be in Raleigh Monday morning and would then make a statement for the papers. This he has done and his card corroborates, in almost every material particular, the article which appeared in Saturday's NEWS. Comment is now unnecessary at our hands. The card speaks for itself. That the Republican party, or the leaders thereof, murdered J. W. Stephens, there can be no doubt; that is if faith is to be put in Holden's confession. Read Mr. Bailey's statement:

A CARD.

In the DAILY NEWS of the 30th ult., an article was published which purports to give the substance of a statement made by me to certain gentlemen at Cameron on the night of the 28th. As a matter of justice to myself and all the parties concerned it becomes necessary for me to state the following facts:

On my way to the Baptist State Convention in Fayetteville I was introduced to ex-Gov. Holden. During the session of the Convention I was invited to dine with him and accepted the invitation. I spent the afternoon with him, returning to the Baptist church after tea. Our intercourse was free and agreeable. He gave me an account of his religious experience and of his political troubles. He stated to me that the plan of the "Kirk war" originated with the Executive Committee of the Republican party at Washington, in the interest of the party; that he was opposed to it, but was allowed no discretion in the matter; that it was decided by that committee to inaugurate and prosecute the campaign as he did it; that if he did not carry out the wishes of the party he and the State were to be crushed; and that if he was successful in the execution of their plans he would probably receive a Cabinet appointment, the Secretaryship of the Interior.

In reference to the death of Stephens I understood from him that the Republicans had much to do with that crime; that the prosecution of those who were charged with it was discontinued because testimony was either elicited or likely to be elicited which would implicate or criminate prominent members of the Republican party; that these fears were awakened in part by the discovery of the coil from which the rope was cut which was found on the neck of the murdered man.

The statements of Gov. Holden left on me the clear and distinct impression that he had been the unwilling instrument for the accomplishment of the purposes of his party and that he did not merit the odium which attached to his name all over the State.

During the session of the late Constitutional Convention I called on Gov. Holden in his office at his own request. In a very pleasant interview reference was made to the removal of political disabilities by Congress, and also to the removal of his own disabilities by the Convention then in session. So favorably was I impressed with statements made by him that I called on Rev. J. A. Stallings, of Duplin and a few other members, and requested them to use their influence to have Gov. Holden's disabilities removed.

I stated these facts or some of them in the conversation referred to in the NEWS as mentioned above. I have also given them in other parts of the State, where Gov. Holden happened to be the subject of conversation. It was done in the free and easy style of social intercourse, and though I stated nothing which was not true, I did not expect to see it in the newspapers or in print.

In any statement which I may have made concerning Judge Bond or the hanging of Judge Kerr, I gave or meant to give my own opinions, based on information received from other sources; not from anything said to me by Gov. Holden. So far as I can now recollect he has never spoken to me in reference to either of those gentlemen.

I have made this statement in the interest of truth and not of any political party; also as a matter of justice to myself and all the persons mentioned in the NEWS of the 30th.

C. T. BAILEY.

Appointment of Supervisors—Special Term of the U. S. Circuit Court.

Judge Bond put in an appearance Sunday, and opened a special term of the United States Circuit Court yesterday, for the appointment of supervisors on the part of the United States for the coming election. Court was opened in the forenoon in the office of the clerk, but in the afternoon was adjourned to the office of the United States Marshal. In this, the Eastern District, there are 43 counties and of this number 26 have applied, according to the law, for the appointment of supervisors, as follows: Beaufort, Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Chowan, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Duplin, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gates, Halifax, Harnett, Lenoir, Nash, New Hanover, Northampton, Onslow, Pender, Pitt, Robeson, Sampson, Wake and Wayne.

As there are two supervisors appointed for each polling place in the county, the list is too long for publication, so we can give only the appointments for this county, which are as follows:

Raleigh Township—1st ward, M B Barbee, rep. and J J Lewis, dem; 2nd ward, O Hunter, col. rep. and Geo T Cook, dem; 3d ward, E G Haywood, Jr., rep. and E T Hall, dem; 4th ward, Norfleet Dunston, col. rep. and E O Macy, dem; 5th ward, O D Lipscomb, rep. and C W Lamteth, dem. We learn that Judge Bond leaves this afternoon for Greensboro, and that he supervisor for the Western District will probably be named upon his arrival there so that appointment may be made for that section.

Aunt Abby and the Recent Developments.

Aunt Abby House, yesterday evening, as she met a certain lawyer on the street, "Child have you heard the news?" "No, Aunt Abby," responded the lawyer, what is it?" "Why, my God, honey, they are going to hang Holden!" and an unrighteous gleam shot out from the bright black eyes of the heroic old lady; and as she waved her hickory stick over her head and stepped glibly along to tell the news to the next one, somebody remarked that Aunt Abby looked twenty years younger.

KEOGH'S KONFESSION.

More Garbled Letters—"A Fresh Batch" Wanted—"Things Look Rotten Blue"—Carry the News to Hiram.

General W. R. Cox, Chairman of our State Executive Committee, has received a letter, bearing date of September 28, from a gentleman in Washington, D. C., which says: "Those letters copied from Z. B. Vance's letter-book in the War Department, that I wrote you Keogh was here after, are to be started tonight in the mail, addressed to Keogh at Raleigh. The package consists of about twenty-five pages of foolscap paper closely written, and was copied by a clerk in the department at the request of Keogh, to be used for campaign purposes. Think of it! No one except a Radical can see them and make extracts of them, and then they are copied by a clerk under pay of the Government! Keogh told a friend of his here that the thing looked rotten blue for the Republican party in North Carolina this year, and that they (the Rads) had to resort to desperate means to carry the State, and by sending Vance's letters on his war record was the only way they could make a point on him, and he (Keogh) had to come for a 'fresh batch.'"

A Centennial Joke.

Street car jammed and packed to double its capacity, and the aisles crowded with ladies and gentlemen, standing. Many of the ladies had taken seats on gentlemen's laps, rather than stand. There sat our young friend from Raleigh, as still as a marble statute, debating in his mind whether he should keep his seat or give it up to some lady who had none. To settle the matter, he gently touched the arm of a beautiful miss who had not passed her 18th year, and said: "Excuse me; if you will accept you can take a seat on my lap." "No, thank you," she mildly replied, "I prefer to stand; you are so kind, I will give the seat to grandpa, who is feeling miserable to-day;" and with the remark she gently seated grandpa, a fat old gentleman, on our young friend's lap. The young man hugely enjoyed the four mile ride to the Centennial grounds, carrying upon his lap this great load of sin; but as he doesn't like to monopolize too much room where it is needed, he will walk henceforth when corpulent gentlemen desire his seat in a street car.

The Edenton Street M. E. Church Revival.

An increased religious interest is manifesting itself at Edenton Street Methodist Church. A large number of enquirers have presented themselves for prayer. Up to this time about twenty have professed conversion. The able sermons of Rev. Dr. Burkhead have produced considerable impression. During the past week Rev. Henry Gray assisted and preached some effective sermons. On Sunday last seven persons connected themselves with the church, being an addition to others previously received during the progress of the meeting. The communion services on Sunday morning were largely participated in. Much feeling, though quiet and without excitement, is prevalent throughout the entire congregation, and bids fair to develop in quite an extensive revival work. The increased interest on Sunday justified a continuance of the meeting, and afternon and evening services were announced for the present week.

Mayor's Court.

Six men (five white and one colored) were before His Honor, the Mayor, yesterday, for being drunk and disorderly on Sunday. All parties were fined $5 and costs. They earnestly request that their names be suppressed.

Martin King, colored, was up for larceny, but was discharged for want of evidence.

Alfred Flowers, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs.

Thos. Lilly, drunk and down, Sunday, was fined $5 and costs. Judgment was suspended on condition that he leave the city immediately, and not return within a month. The said Thomas took his departure in double-quick time, not, however, without many thanks to His Honor.

A North Carolinian in Philadelphia.

A friend says: "While in Philadelphia I made my headquarters at the large hat emporium of Messrs C. H. Gardner & Co., 606 Market street. Maj. Seigle, of North Carolina, is one of the principal salesmen, and no better man ever wore a hat. Let our merchants make a note of this and call and see him, and he will not only sell them hats but aid them in finding board, and be of much service otherwise to them."

Our young friend, A. C. Sanders, is what we would style "a business fellow." He is always stirring about, trying to buy cotton, and he does it too. He pays such high prices that the farmers like to sell to him; and then sells them such good groceries so cheap that you always find him doing a good business.

IS IT INTIMIDATION?

A Coffin and a Placard as a Warning.

Col. Thos. M. Argo, of this city has recently renounced his republicanism and announced his purpose to vote for Tilden and Hendricks. Last Sunday morning a pine coffin was found in front of the door of his law office in the Court House, on the coffin a large placard bearing this device:

K. K. K.

First a Ku Klux, then a Republican.

Now a Democrat or white line man.

This is to notify you that unless you "mend your ways" this box will be your portion!

The coffin had been made for a negro man who dropped dead on the streets last Friday, but being too short, had been placed under the steps leading into the court room. It was discovered, Sunday morning by Sheriff Dunn, who had it moved into his office opposite that of Col. Argo, who is now absent from the city attending Johnston Court.

Meeting of the County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met at the Court House, yesterday, in regular session Pesent: Sol. J. Allen, J. R. Nowell, Wm. Jinks, A. G. Jones and Wm. D. Turner.

Upon motion of Alderman Jinks, G. A. Upchurch was appointed constable in White Oak Township, to fill the vacancy caused by the killing of T. J. Passmore, he having been selected by a vote of the towship.

Wm. Hicks and Julius Crawford were granted license to sell liquor by the small measure from now until the 1st of May, 1877.

The above was the only business transacted which is of the slightest interest to the public, the remainder of the session of the board being devoted to passing upon county orders, and other business of individual interest. The board will meet again this morning at 10 o'clock, and will during its session to-day appoint poll holders in the several townships of the county.

"Now You See It and Now You Don't."

Two colored sharpers, John Patterson and Isaiah Crawson, were before Justice Maguin, yesterday, for "putting up a job" on London Grice, colored, whereby they had robbed him of $20. It appears that they had bet the old man $20 that he couldn't show them $45. He pulled the money out of his pocket, whereupon the sharpers turned their backs and refused to look at it. This was new, but they claimed the stakes and took the $20. The victim had them arrested, and the Justice allowed them to compromise the case upon the tricksters refunding to the old man all of their ill-gotten gains.

Vance Expected at Henderson.

A member of the Tilden and Vance Club of Henderson was in this city, yesterday, and said they were going to have Gov. Vance there next Saturday night to make them a speech, nolens volens. He speaks at Laws' Saturday, and goes to Forestville then to spend the night. The club of Henderson are trying to make special arrangements to carry him to that place Saturday evening, have a speech from him that night, and have him to spend Sunday with them. The next day he and Settle speak at Oxford.

Who Killed Stephens?

In the Sentinel of July 15, 1870, there appeared an article, signed "Citizen," which reviewed the evidence brought out before Chief Justice Pearson in the trial of Sheriff Wylie, Dr. Roan, and others, for the murder of John W. Stephens, on a writ of habeas corpus. The writer took the ground that the Republicans murdered Stephens for "a political purpose;" and closed the article with these words:

"If we be right in our conclusions, and we cannot see how the logic of facts can be resisted, where will rest the blood of Stephens? On the League? Is it not William W. Holden?"

Donation List.

A list for contributions for the relief of the Savannah sufferers has been opened at the Mayor's office, and it is hoped that all who feel willing to aid the people of this unfortunate city, will subscribe liberally, or at least give something. Acknowledgements will be made each day through the papers of the city. Capt. J. J. Thomas has given $2 as a commencement.

Preparations for a Demonstration.

The Republicans of the city are preparing in a quiet way to give a big reception to Judge Settle as he reaches this city, on his way from Johnston's store, in Panther Branch, to New Light. This suggests the enquiry, what preparations are making to receive Gov. Vance? Let the young men of the Tilden and Vance Club look to this.

THE Constitution of yesterday is silent on the Bailey revelations. "The truth is mighty and will prevail."

THE STEPHEN'S MURDER.—"The Republicans had much to do with that crime."—W. W. Holden to Rev. C. T. Bailey.

THE Republican party had complete control of North Carolina, but two years. In that brief period they came near ruining the State forever. Yet they have the effrontery to ask the people for a new lease of power.

HON. George Davis will speak tonight in Metropolitan Hall. Let every one turn out to meet him. He is a glorious orator. His lips are touched with the living coal of eloquence; and it is all sustained by the most exalted patriotism.

"THE CAPE FEAR" is the title of a new daily Democratic newspaper to be established in Wilmington, on the 10th of this month, by Cicero W. Harris, late editor of the Morning Star. Mr Harris has won an enviable reputation as a journalist; and we wish him unbounded success in his enterprise.

THE PLAN OF THE "KIRK WAR" ORIGINATED WITH THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AT WASHINGTON, IN THE INTEREST OF THE PARTY.—Ex-Gov. Holden's statement to Rev. C. T. Bailey. (See Raleigh News, Oct. 3, 1876.)

REV. MR. BAILEY'S CARD.

The card of Rev. C. T. Bailey, which appeared in yesterday's NEWS, is a plain, unvarnished and thoroughly lucid statement of the material points of the revelations made to him by Ex-Gov. Holden. It was given solely in the interests of truth and not of any political party; and as a matter of justice to himself and all the parties mentioned in the NEWS of the 30th. It was just such a frank truthful, unprejudiced recital as we had reason to expect from a christian minister of Mr. Bailey's high standing and purity of life.

The statement bears upon its face the impress of truth and sincerity. It is evidently "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." Rev. Mr. Bailey is incapable of deliberate misrepresentation. He is a gentleman of too much integrity of character for that. He possesses the confidence not only of the entire denomination which raised him to the eminent and responsible position which he now fills with so much usefulness to the cause of religion and with so much credit to himself, but he is universally respected and esteemed by those men of other denominations to whom he is well known. The public may confide in all that he says.

The statement contains these prominent points which must sink deep into the public mind. That the Kirk war was inaugurated to serve a political purpose; that Holden permitted himself to be used as a tool by the managers of the party at Washington; that Holden pursued his wicked course in the Holden-kirk war through compulsion or the hope of reward; and that the Republicans had much to do with the killing of Stephens.

Bear these points in mind. After such disclosures, the Republican party hardly has a right to exist—certainly, they have forfeited the last vestige of a claim, if they ever had any, to the respect or the confidence of the people of North Carolina.

A FAITHLESS CREW.

The guilt of Dr. Howerton is clearly established. No one can deny it. We defy him or his friends to overthrow the evidence which we have from time to time published in the NEWS. The columns of this paper are tendered to any man who will undertake his vindication. The noon-day sun isn't clearer than the testimony which we have produced to throw its flood of light over this faithless official's dark transactions.

Why do not the Republicans force his resignation, or at least demand it? What reason have they for their silence? Are they afraid of him? Yes, that is it: the Secretary can probably make some confessions or revelations, and tell of "the ways that are dark and the tricks that are vain," which his heathen associates have been practicing for so many years.

It was the duty of the Republicans to have forced Howerton's withdrawal as soon as they found out his guilt, whether from a Democratic or Republican source; by not doing so, they are daily strengthening the belief now taking such deep hold in the minds of everybody, that the Republicans have been false to the people—false to their own instincts of right and wrong—false to every sentiment of patriotism, every impulse of duty—and false to all that is true and honest and honorable.

They are indeed unworthy of confidence: they cannot be trusted: their own record proves this. From top to bottom, they are corruptionists, and the whole crew should be driven from the seats of power into that oblivion and disgrace which their evil deeds, their sins and crimes against their own countrymen, so richly merit.

WHO KILLED STEPHENS?

"In reference to the death of Stephens I understood from him that THE REPUBLICANS HAD MUCH TO DO WITH THAT CRIME; that the prosecution of those who were charged with it was discontinued because testimony was either elicited or likely to be elicited which would implicate or criminate prominent members of the Republican party; that these fears were awakened in part by the discovery of the coil from which the rope was cut which was found on the neck of the murdered man."—From the card of Rev. C. T. Bailey concerning Holden's confession.

THE Philadelphia Times is having a lively battle with the Republican plunderers in Philadelphia. It must be muzzled by the law or the Republicans must be overthrown. A dozen or more libel suits have piled up against it. The Times cannot be too much applauded for the gallant fight it is making to bring to light the corruptions and villainies of the disreputable authorities of Philadelphia. A public journal, run in the interest of good government, cannot do a nobler work than that of dragging to light the men, who under the cloak of patriotism, bribe, steal and assassinate.

THE Republicans of Wake charge that Mr. Whitley and Mr. Page, of our Legislative ticket, pledged themselves on the stump in 1874, that they would never vote for Convention These gentlemen made no such pledge. The Convention question was not discussed in 1874, on the stump, in Wake, by Messrs. Whitley and Page.

THE Democratic ticket for House of Representatives in W county is composed of four honora highly-esteemed, and popular a culturists. The Republicans are tempting to slur them by cal them "four insignificant co men." The farmers will take n of this studied insult. We rej that the honest yeomanry—the who constitute the power, the gr deur and the glory of the State—fully represented on our ticke Should they be chosen to repres us in the next Legislature, we feel sure that the interests of the p ple will be well guarded. Had t Legislature of 1868-'69 been grac with the presence of a few more "i significant countrymen," the treas ry would not have been robbed a the commonwealth disgraced, as was. Let the farmers of the countr rally to the support of the gallan young Democratic standard-bearers chosen from their ranks; and rebuk the men who sneer at them.

THE suspension of the Wilmington Journal will be widely regretted. It was one of the oldest and truest newspapers in the State, and has done good service in its day. The cause of the failure, as announced by the stockholders of the Wilmington Journal Publishing Company, was "the financial distress which the whole country is suffering, and not the want of any ability or energy in its editorial conduct."

WE have the Republicans "on the trot." The signs of victory fleck the sky of our future; even the desponding may lift their heads in hope; but still, we must not rest, but work on with unabated vigor until the polls close. Let no man fail to do his duty; and a glorious triumph will crown our efforts in the blessed cause of Reform and Reconciliation.

THE Norfolk Landmark ventures to say that there is not a man in the South who feels more kindly towards the men who fell fighting beneath the old flag than Zebulon B. Vance. Truer words were never spoken. In attempting to show the contrary, the Radical press of this State is, collectively, writing itself down an ass.

THE New York Sun says: "Goy. Tilden stands fire like a veteran as he is. The perjury shot and the copperhead shell have not hurt a hair of him. He is all the stronger for the futile efforts of his enemies to break him down."

"THE REPUBLICANS HAD MUCH TO DO WITH THAT CRIME."

PERSONAL.

Prof. Swing does a large marriage business at Chicago.

The English lawyers are said to be doing away with their ridiculous gowns and wigs.

Sunset Cox was born in Ohio fifty-two years ago. He is college bred and has been both lawyer and editor.

A carpenter in Troy is so jealous of his young and pretty wife that he compels her to accompany him to his daily labors.

Carson, the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, gets mad when he is told that he sent his son to a mixed school.

Edward Hunter, one of Brigham Young's bishops, is visiting West Chester Pa., He is eighty-four years of age and is said to own property worth $200,000.

Thirty-nine years have elapsed since Queen Victoria first ascended the throne, and in the mean time bustles have developed so prodigiously that she now has to sit on the extreme edge of it, or stand.

Jesse Pomeroy is now confined in a solitary cell in the Massachusetts State prison. He seemed dispirited until recently not having anything to do, but work in the shape of making brushes has been given him, and he is apparently better contented with his lot.

Senator Sharon, of Nevada, gave a grand banquet at his palatial residence (formerly Ralston's Belmonth,) near San Francisco, last evening, in honor of Secretary Cameron, Gen. Sherman and the Earl and Countess Dufferin. A special train conveyed ladies from the city in full dress for the ball, which was a magnificent affair.

Canaris, the gallant greek admiral who fifty odd years ogo, with forty-two associates, took the sacrament and devoted himself to death in sailing two fireships into the midst of the Turkish fleet at Scios, succeeding in destroying the Pasha's ship, with many hundred men, is alive at Athens, a hearty old salt of eighty-two.

Dom Pedro is a greater mystery to the European journalists than he was to the Faber men of America. He takes them by surprise with his odd notions of independence. They could only stare when he refused the place of honor in the St Petersburg Congress of Orientalists, and are disgusted because he rides about in common bus.

The new sultan is a man of a prudent and saving turn. Hitherto the cook kitchen has provided the countless retainers of the household with provisions which they were allowed to take to their homes. In Abdul Aziz's time his kitchen cost more than $200,000 a month Abdul Hamid has changed all that; the cost has been reduced one half, simply by an order that no provisions shall be carried home by the attendants, who will be furnished with plentiful repasts in the palace. The sultan has also reduced the ridiculously profuse expenses of his adopted mother, thus making a saving of $750,000 a year.

STATE CANVASS.

For four months service as minister to Peru Judge Settle received $10 000.

H. R. Bryan Esq., will address the Newbern Tilden and Vance club tonight.

In Wilson there are 32 Tilden and Vance flags within sight of the Court House.

A big Tilden and Vance flag-raising is to take place in Wilmington some time this week.

The Democrats of Cooper's township, Nash county, have formed a Tilden and Vance club.

Jake Bowman, of Mitchell county, is looming up as an aspirant for the vacant seat on the bench of our Supreme Court.

The Radicals of Forsythe county have nominated John I. Nissen for the Senate and Edgar Lineback for the House.

The Tilden and Vance club in Washington township, Guilford county has 60 members. W. N. Wright is the president.

Over two thousand people heard the discussion at Elizabethtown last Wednesday, between Vance and Settle. The crowd quiet and orderly.

The prospect for a Democratic victory in Rutherford county is said to be very good. It is expected that Bean, Democrat, will be elected to the lower House of the General Assembly.

James Heaton, the red-mouthed Radical of New Hanover county, attempted to make a speech in Onslow county the other day. He had six white men among his large audience of negroes.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

A Washington dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer states that it has been ascertained that "Randall gives up the race for the speakership, which will leave Sayler without any formidable opposition."

The Cincinnati Commercial (Rep.) gracefully insinuates that while the Republican party might without the slightest inconvenience, dispense with the services of Mr. Chandler, "it would be very inconvenient to get along without Mr. Schurz."

Some Democratic German voters in New Haven, Connecticut, have organized a batallion to be known as the "German Sweepers," who will carry brooms when on parade to symbolize their hopes of a sweeping victory in November. The captain of the organization will carry a feather duster.

It doesn't require very powerful spectacles to perceive a very strong and rapidly growing sentiment in this section of the commonwealth in favor of Charles Francis Adams for Governor. If his strength increases in the intervening time between now and election day as it has during the past ten days, Mr. Adams will ride into the State House on top of something like 10,000 majority in November.—Boston Post.

Gen. Joseph Holman has been nominated for Congress by the Dakota Democracy. This gentleman is a cousin of Wm. S. Holman, of Indiana, a lawyer of ability and a man of fine oratorical powers. He was District-Attorney for Utah under President Pierce, and has since resided in Nebraska, Iowa and Dakota successively. Jeff P. Kidder, a Republican, is the present delegate from Dakota. He was elected by a majority of 2,408 two years ago.

Of President Lincoln's cabinet, as originally formed, only one member was compelled to withdraw on account of scandals connected with the management of his department. That member was Simon Cameron. Only three members of that cabinent now survive: Simon Cameron, Secretary of War; Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy; Montgomery Blair Postmaster General Welles and Blair support Tilden. Cameron supports Hayes.—St. Louis Republican.

That makes five Presidential tickets. Capt. Chauncey Barnes, of California, has nominated himself for President and Caroline Brocklies, of the same State, for Vice President. He announces his platform in a printed circular as "No salary, no rum, whiskey or tobacco at the head of the church or State and every man to have his wife, mother or sister to act and stand by him, side by side, to counsel upon all subjects pertaining to the welfare of our government and humanity."

After a most remarkable muddle it has been decided that the election in Colorado is to take place on Tuesday, Oct. 3. Secondly it has been decided by the local authorities that there is power to elect then only the member of Congress for the unexpired term of the forty-fourth Congress. The member of the forty-fifth congress it is proposed to elect on the 7th of November, although nobody has yet been able to find any provision of the statutes for an election on that day. Probably the general federal law will be regarded as covering the case.

Mr. Hayes has not been very successful in the sort of witnesses he got together to prove his innocence of any intention of defrauding the revenue. One of the affidavits is from A. H. Miller, cashier of the First National Bank of Fremont, which is controlled by B. Hayes. Mr. Miller lives in elegant style, and yet for years he has listed hispersonality at about $800. This year he swore to $860. Mr. Miller has his piano alone worth about $450, and horse and buggy worth $250. This leaves the meagre sum of $160 in household goods. Another man who makes affidavit is Mr. Wilson, President of the Bank. He is reputed the richest man in Fremont, yet his household goods are worth $810. In fact all of the jurors that acquitted Mr. Hayes seem to have got some of the pork.

AN OUTSIDE VIEW.

The North Carolina Election---The Color Question an Issue.

[Richmond correspondence N. Y Herald.]

In North Carolina and Louisiana the situation it materially different from that in other of the ex-Confederate States. In 1860 the Democratic party of North Carolina was divided between Breckenridge and Douglass, who had married in that State into a strong family, at the head of which was Governor David S. Reid, Hon. Thomas Settle and Hon. R. P. Dick. The war brought on a union which only lasted during the first year, and Vance was elected Governor by the semi-Union Conservative party, led by Holden and other good Democrats like Settle and Dick. They soon quarrelled with Vance and kept North Carolina in a turmoil until Holden's appointment as Governor by President Johnson in 1865. There was then a change of front among many old politicians. Numbers of the Democracy—Holden, Settle, Dick and Rodman—joined with old whigs like General Rufus Barringer, and collected around them some good Confederate soldiers, and made a Union party before the days of negro suffrage. The semi-Union old whig sentiment tended to opposition, and Worth and Graham became the heads of the New Democracy and carried the State over Holden, thus dividing the white people by a line irrespective of old parties, Unionism, or ex Confederate fidelity. When negro suffrage came, of course, it made the State overwhelmingly Republican, and the whites have been struggling ever since to organize so as to get control of the State government. They have been gradually succeeding year by year. In 1870 there were 140,000 white voters and 78,000 black, and in 1872 Caldwell for Governor received 98 000—that is, only about 20,000 whites voted for him, for the full negro vote was polled. This leaves 120,000 for the Democrats and the stay-at-homes. It is this margin which makes the State doubtful. Out of 200,000 voters it is safe to calculate on 20,000 not voting, and thus the probable Democratic majority becomes a matter of 1,000 or 2,000. But while this is so other causes have been operating to force the whites more and more together. Misgovernment, Republican corruption in the State government, all have tended to unite the whites. On the other hand Vance is the Democratic nominee for Governor in the old districts where the deserters and red strings most abounded during the war, and it was some feeling of this sort which led the dozen Democrats from the mountains to bolt the caucus which had nominated Vance for United States Senator and unite with the Republicans on Merrimon, who had been looked upon during the war as not over loyal to the Confederacy. Settle, the Republican nominee for Governor, is a man of fair abilities and a fair record, but by no means the equal of Vance on the stump, and I am satisfied which ever party is enthusiastic and sanguine in the last two weeks before election will carry the State. In other words, if Indiana goes Democratic in October North Carolina is certain for Tilden by perhaps 10 000 majority.

Grant Wanted to be a Confederate.

[Special from St. Louis to Chicago Times]

Jeff. Chandler, heretofore one of the leading Republicans of this State, has been called upon by the Republicans of the Third district to accept the nomination for Congress. He has written a letter, which will be published to-morrow, in which he declines to be a candidate, and says: "I am not in sympathy with the Cincinnatti platform and cannot support its nominees." Chandler is from Michigan, and is a relative of the notorious Zach. He is a graduate of Michigan University, and served with the Michigan troops during the late war, rising from the ranks to be colonel of his regiment. He settled in Missouri after the war, and up to this time has been a leading man in the Republican party. He was on the ticket as Attorney-General which General John B. Anderson headed four years ago. The district in which he is asked to run is that in which R. G. Frost is the Democratic candidate. Frost is the son of Gen. D. M. Frost, who commanded the State troops here at the outbreak of the war, and was captured at Camp Jackson by Blair and Lyon at the head of the home guards, on the ground that Frost intended to take the troops into the Confederate service. Frost now has the original letter written to himself and General Sterling Price, when the Missouri troops were organizing, before the attack on Fort Sumter, from Ulysses S. Grant, then at Galena, asking for a commission in the force going South, and offering to espouse the southern cause.—General Frost declines to make public the letter, claiming that it would not be honorable. If, however, an attack be made on young Frost by reason of his father's Confederate record, the letter will be produced. The existence of this letter is an indisputable fact, and neither the President nor his friends dare deny it. Grant's personal habits during his residence with the Dents had been so bad that his offer was not accepted and about five months afterward he went to Springfield and offered his services to Yates for the Federal army.

The iron palmetto tree at Columbia, S. C., has been repainted so well that it is said it would even stand the test of being placed in a grove of the growing trees. The leaves and trunk have been repainted in colors true to nature, and the illusion is still further heightened by means of fine wire draped about the trunk in imitation of long gray moss. The monument is now two or three feet higher than formerly, an imitation of the tender sprouts which constitute "the cabbage" having been added to the top.

An Alabama paper describes a remarkable underground lake near Montgomery, upon which there is a fine field of corn growing. The lake is covered with a layer of earth, the layer being so thin, however, that a horse's weight is too great for it to bear, and the land has to be cultivated by hand. The farm laborers amuse themselves at noon time by making holes through the crust of earth and fishing. The fish caught have no eyes and no scales.

The Japanese do not get weary of the endeavor to transform Japan into some likeness of an American or European State. They now have a commission in this country visiting the schools, intending to learn the best methods of educating children. Another commission, also now in this country, is ascertaining measures taken by the governments of cities through boards of health to protect the health of their inhabitants.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The History of the Kirk War--Mr. Bailey's Card.

The card of Rev. C. T. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder of this city, will be seen in another place, and will be the first thing in the paper to attract attention. The card was received last evening, and was immediately issued as a NEWS extra, appearing on the streets about 7 o'clock. It of course created an intense hubbub, even though the public had learned before its appearance something of its general character. It had a highly pleasing effect upon the Democratic portion of the community, while its effects upon the Republicans was quite the reverse. It is not our purpose to comment upon these developments; the comments will be found upon our editorial page. However, it is not inappropriate to say here that public opinion is decided in the conviction that these revelations place the State in the hands of Vance beyond the shadow of a doubt, even if any doubt had previously existed.

We learn from the most credible authority that Gov. Holden yesterday evening denounced the story told by Mr. Bailey as a fabrication, without a foundation in fact. He denied in the most positive manner, that he had ever had any such conversation with Mr. Baily as that reported by that gentleman, and denied further that he had ever appealed to any one to exercise his or her influence for the removal of his disabilities. Thus the matter is reduced to a mere question of veracity between Mr. Bailey and Gov. Holden. Mr. Bailey is a gentleman of the highest character and most spotless reputation. No man in the State can hesitate as to which of the two is the more worthy of belief.

It was reported last evening that Gov. Holden was preparing for the NEWS a card in reply to the charges which had been made against him. No such card was presented at this office, and it is supposed that instead of applying for the use of these columns, he will make the defence through the columns of the Constitution, of which he is the editor.

A Tip-Top Night Feast.

We are indebted to Mr. W. R. Pepper, the excellent restaurateur of Wilmington street, for an abundant and delightful collection of eatables sent up last night. There were oysters on the bill of fare, cooked in three different styles: stewed, fried and scolloped. There were other things too, but the oysters attracted the largest share of attention. They were elegantly prepared, and came in conveniently about the hour when church yards yawn and people who stay up all night get the hungriest. There is no better "getter-up of grub" than Mr. Pepper, and we ask him to accept our thanks and compliments for the supper of last night.

Registration.

Registration begins to-day all over the State. In this township, the following are the places where the books can be found, and the names also of registrars: First Ward—Thos. Scarlett, registrar, books at Upchurch's shop on Hargett street; Second Ward—R. W. Taylor, at the Grange Hotel; Third Ward—R. B. Seawell, at the Court House; Fourth Ward—T. J. Belvin, at ———; Fifth Ward—John W. Brown, at Brown's store, on Morgan street. Outside Ward—J. M. Carver, at the Court House.

Vance and Settle After Their Present Appointments.

The present list of appointments of Gov. Vance and Judge Settle, ends with the 13th inst. After this time they will speak in Caswell, Rockingham, Davidson, Guilford, and other counties, to be hereafter announced. The Executive Committees of the two parties are engaged now in making the appointments. Our friends in the counties named may expect the candidates and may look for dates in a few days.

Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

We learn that this company will celebrate their 9th anniversary on Friday next, by a parade and target shooting at Bledsoe's Grove, after which they will partake of an oyster supper at their room on Wilmington street. The prizes offered for the best shooting, are: 1st prize, a silver set; 2d prize, silver butter knife; honorary members, sugar spoon, and a fine copy of Shakspeare's complete works.

Politics in Richmond, Anson and Union.

An esteemed friend writes us as follows from Rockingham, Richmond county: "Gen. Leach has made about half a dozen speeches in our county, with telling effect. Col. Liles is the Democratic candidate for the Senate from Anson and Union counties, and will certainly be elected. We have some hope of carrying our Senatorial District, Richmond and Montgomery counties."

Troops Moving.

Company D, Second Artillery, one of the companies stationed at the garrison near this city, has been ordered to Winnsboro, S. C. They loaded their baggage yesterday afternoon, but did not get off themselves. Capt. Litchfield is in command of this company. Lieut. Gayle, of this city, was assigned to duty with it last Saturday.

A Slap from Across the Line.

The Petersburg Post "gets next to" our particular pet in the following paragraph:

One of the Radical North Carolina orators is affectionately dubbed down there 'the rifle-eyed carpet-bagger from Ohio.' His name is Tourgee, and he wears a glass optic in place of the real one, removed in a drunken spree.

Can't this pink of propriety, now risk one eye on a libel suit in Virginia?

The Colored T. and V. Club.

The colored Tilden and Vance Club of this city were disappointed last night about their meeting, on account of the bell not being rung. Their next regular meeting will be held next Friday night. This club is about ninety members strong in the city and township.

The Centennial Photographs, &c., &c.

J. W. Watson, the celebrated photographer, has just returned from the Centennial and brought it with him, in the shape of photographic views. Persons who cannot make it convenient to visit the Centennial can call at Watson's Art Gallery and see it. The best advertising medium in the State is the Farmers' N. C. Almanac, and as this Almanac is now in press our merchants should avail themselves of its pages. It cannot fail to remunerate the advertiser, because of its wide circulation, and for a whole year. See J. H. Enniss, of this city, publisher. *

Neuralgia Specific will cure "Sick Headache." Let those who suffer try it.

Mrs. Fanny Dunlap, Friendsville, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that less than one bottle of your Neuralgia Specific cured me of neuralgia, with which I suffered a great deal for some length of time I also suffered with severe attacks of headache. It cured that also; so that I do not have it at all. I am sure it is one of the patent medicines that is all it claims to be.

A Grand Record.

Nearly thirty years have elapsed since Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was first brought to the notice of the American public. To-day it is the most popular remedy on this continent for dispepsia, liver complaint, constipation, debility, nervousness, urinary and uterine complaints, gout, rheumatism, intermittent and remittent fevers, and is widely used in South and Central America, Mexico, the West Indies and Australia, as a preventive and remedy for malarious disorders, and for many other maladies to the relief of which it is adapted. The record of its victories is written in the testimonials of thousands whom it has cured to many of which the widest publicity has been given; it has won the emphatic sanction of leading members of the medical profession, and it has repeatedly been made the subject of encomiums by the home and foreign press. Comment on the above facts is unnecessary. We leave the public to draw its own conclusions.

Another Battle--Turkey Ready for Peace--Russia Wants no More War --Defeat of the Turks--Christians Rising--Disputes in Spain.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Another battle took place on Friday and was continued Saturday. The Servians sustained considerable loss.

A rumor has reached Belgrade that Turkey will accept the peace conditions, provided Servia is made to do likewise.

The Czar, in the course of his letter to Francis Joseph, proposes that Servia shall retain her present independence under Russian generals, notwithstanding the serious steps taken by her. There is a pretty general impression that Russia does not wish to go to war.

The Porte has threatened to hold Roumania responsible for allowing the passage through her territory of Russian volunteers.

Twenty thousand Turks with forty cannon, attacked the Servian army on Saturday near Greedetin. They were completely repulsed, with heavy loss, after 12 hours' fighting.

A dispatch to the Times from Serajero states that 1,500 armed Austrian Sclavonians entered Bosnia Saturday. They are attacking the Moslems and inciting the christians to insurrection. The Turks are marching against them from Banjalupa.

NEW YORK.

Riot in a Colored Church--Beecher Returned—Tribute to Bishop Jones.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A riot occurred in a colored church in Brooklyn last night. The police had to interfere, clear out the congregation and close the church. The dispute was about whom were the true trustees.

Beecher resumed work yesterday. The Methodist ministers at their meeting to-day passed resolutions of regret and sorrow at the death of Bishop Jones and his wife, and sympathy with the afflicted family. A committee was appointed to arrange for public memorial services, to be held in November.

Bright on the Eastern Question--Canadian Help for Savannah--The Czar Thinks Turkey Can't be Entrusted With the Reforms--A Bargain Between Prussia and America Alleged and Denied--Serious Situation in Constantinople--Americans Massacred--The Porte's Position.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 3.—Jno. Bright, addressing a reform club, said he thought a meeting of parliament desirable. It would result in a new policy. Probably under the new ministry it would stamp the future policy of the country with the solemn decision that English treasure and blood should never again be wasted in behalf of the Ottoman empire. Turkey should be left to the fate which Providence decreed for her corruption and tyranny.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—A subscription list has been opened for the aid of the Georgia sufferers from yellow fever. Donations are coming in freely.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The correspondence between the Czar and Francis Joseph is preliminary to the declaration that the application and enforcement of the reforms proposed by the powers cannot be entrusted to Turkey; therefore the powers are invited to come to an understanding about the guarantees to be demanded to secure the application of the reforms promised.

NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

ANNOUNCEMENT

On the 16th day of November 1876 and in the city of Raleigh, the undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Democratic newspaper.

Of long experience in their profession as editors, respectively of the Fayetteville Observer and the Wilmington Journal, they do not affect to doubt the soundness of the general judgment which assigns them ability to furnish a newspaper suited to the needs and adapted to the tastes of the people of North Carolina. Differing in politics in the olden time, there was never a difference between the Observer and the Journal in zeal for the interests and honor of North Carolina. To promote the one, and to uphold and add to the other, will be the object of The Observer now.

Of very decided opinions on questions of public interest, and apt to give those opinions plain expression, they yet, in the first duty of a newspaper to furnish its readers with the information necessary to the formation of their opinions—to publish all "the news;" and their purpose is to make THE OBSERVER now, as of old, a truthful, accurate, condensed history of the time in which we live. It was thus that the old Observer won it hold upon the people of North Carolina, enjoying the affection of its party friends, receiving the respect and confidence of its bitterest political foes and commanding to its comparatively isolated location a circulation larger than has ever been attained by any other North Carolina news aper, and it is thus, by like dignity, and fairness that the editors of THE OBSERVER, transferred to the State Capital, hope it will deserve, and soon equal, and then surpass, its former circulation and prosperity.

It will be their high aim to deserve the public confidence by earnest efforts to promote the public welfare first and foremost of North Carolina, next of all the Southern States, and finally, and through these of the whole Union. They think that this can only be effected by the prevalence of Democratic principles, and the dismissal of the Radical party from the places and power which they have so greatly abused and under whose baleful rule the South has been outraged and the whole country has been impoverished and disgraced

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid, has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the counties of Robeson, Richmond, Bladen, Columbus, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining counties of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington in South Carolina. As a Local Newspaper it has no superior. It is one of the few country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will strive to promote the principles of the Democratic-Conservative party, and is uncompromisingly in favor of White Supremacy. Its local columns will always teem with the latest and best news, written in a brief, intelligent and business like manner. Its editorials will be short and lucid and upon subjects which directly concern our people. As an advertising medium it is much sought after and has a patronage second to no other country paper. Established in 1870, it has ever since been increasing in influence and popularity until it has reached and occupied the very front rank of North Carolina journalism.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.

J. H. ENNISS:

Dear Sir—I have been a practical farmer for forty years, and during that time have taken the best agricultural journals of the day, and I undertake to say that there is more valuable practical information to our farmers in the first and second numbers of the "North Carolina Farmer," than in any dozen copies of the agricultural papers I have taken, and I do most earnestly recommend it to every farmer in our State, as the paper for him, above all others.
